

Zane Grey Reading Challenge

Dear Readers,

A new year is upon you, which means spending time with friends and perhaps playing outdoors and enjoying all that nature has to offer. Walking through the woods, fishing at your favorite fishing spot, or playing in your backyard are all great ways to pass your days.

But when you need some quiet time what better way to spend it then with a good book? Books can take you places you have never been. With a book and your imagination think about the places you can go. Travel the high seas, visit medieval castles, join the pilgrims on the Mayflower, or learn about how your favorite invention was discovered.

Western author Zane Grey realized the power of words. His books brought to life what it was like for the cowboys, Native Americans, and settlers to live and work in the west.

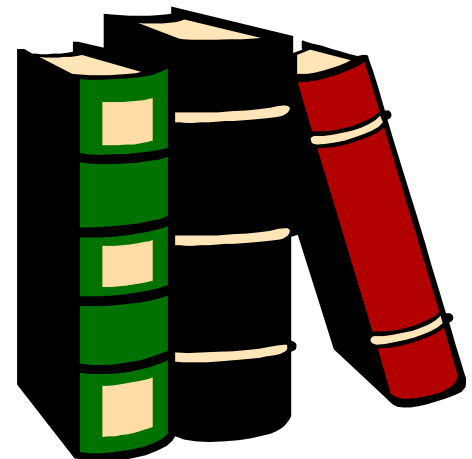

We would like to give you the opportunity to earn a free book with the Zane Grey Reading Challenge. It is easy and fun. All you have to do is:

1. Read 10 books and record them in the Reading Log.
2. Write a book review or design an illustration for one of your summer reading books.
3. Bring your completed Reading Log and your book review or illustration to the Zane Grey Museum in Lackawaxen, PA or mail to:

Upper Delaware S&RR
Attn: Zane Grey Reading Challenge
274 River Road
Beach Lake, PA 18405

You can pick up your free book or it will be sent to you.

Keep reading!!! We look forward to seeing what you have read this year!!

Book Review

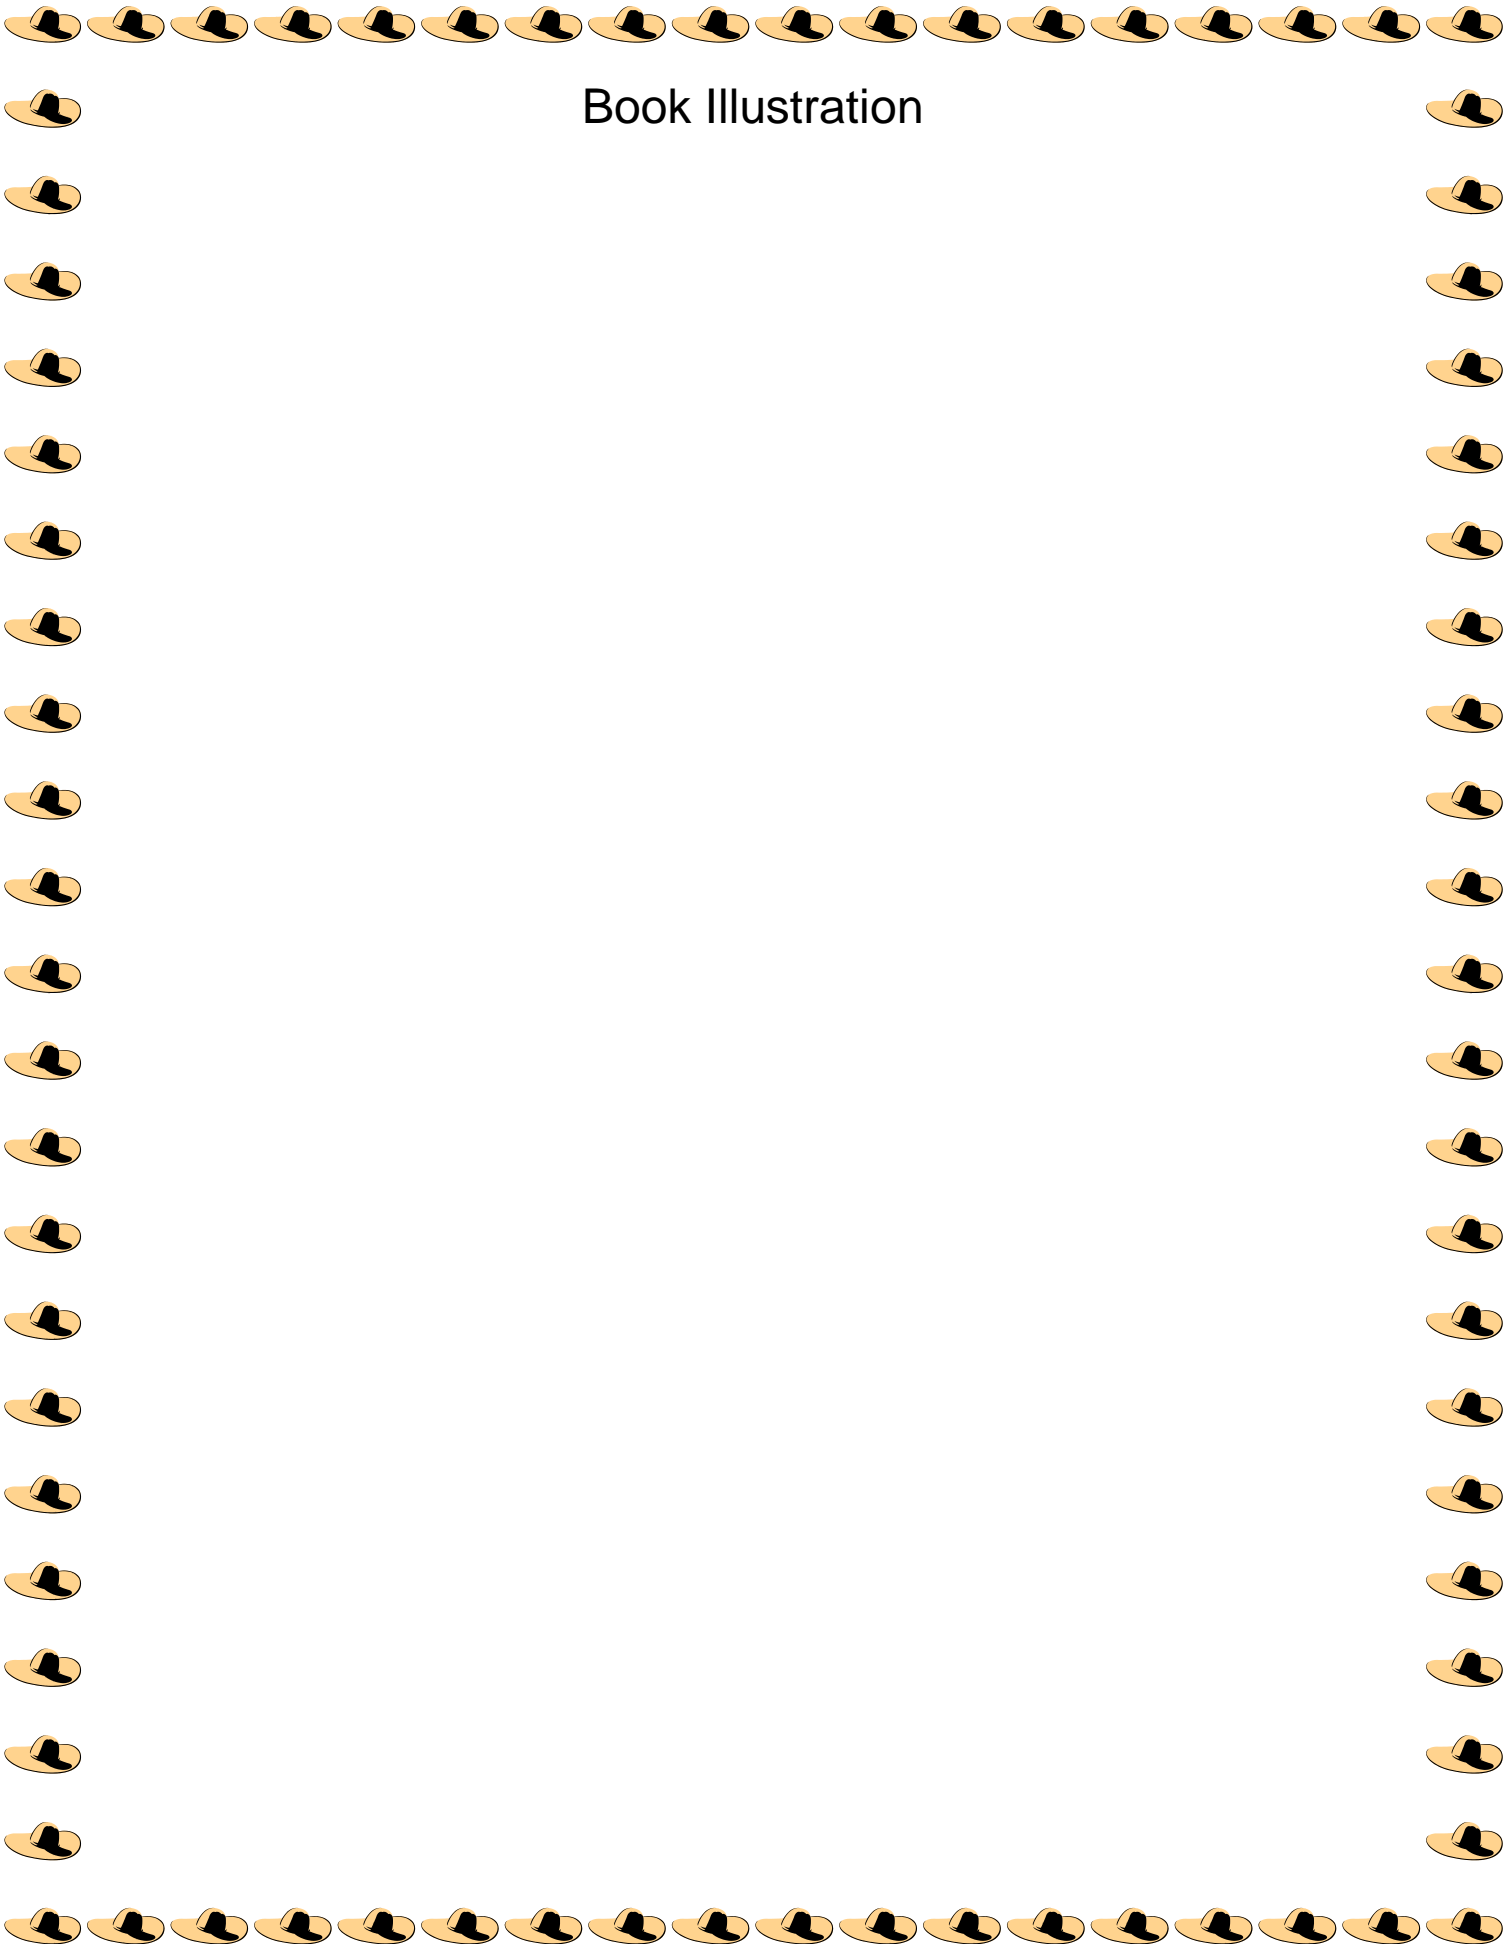

What is your favorite book you read this summer? What made the book so special? Who were the main characters? What was the plot of the book?

Would you recommend this book to others? Were there illustrations? If you would like, draw your own illustration for the story.
